MINIMUM WAGE BOARD.

ORDER GOVERNING PUBLIC HOUSEKEEPING OCCUPATION.

WHERE used in the following Order the term "public housekeeping occupation" shall include the work of waitresses, attendants, housekeepers, janitresses, cooks, and kitchen help in restaurants, hotels, tea-rooms, ice-cream parlours, light-lunch stands, and other places where food is cooked, prepared, and served for which a charge is made; and the work of chambermaids in hotels, lodging-houses, and apartments where lodging is furnished, whether or not such establishments are operated independently or in connection with any other business; and the work of all female elevator operators.

And where used in this Order the term "employer" shall include every person, firm, or corporation, agent, manager, representative, contractor, sub-contractor, or principal, or other persons having control or direction of any employee in the public housekeeping occupation, or responsible, directly or indirectly, for the wages of another.

(a.) Women Eighteen Years of Age or over.

Upon receipt of the recommendations from a Conference held on the twenty-eighth day of May, 1919, pursuant to the provisions of the "Minimum Wage Act," touching the minimum wage and maximum hours proper in the public housekeeping occupation, as follows:—

"Be it Resolved, That this Conference on the public housekeeping occupation in the Province of British Columbia, meeting in the Court-house, Vancouver, B.C., on the twenty-eighth day of May, 1919, hereby makes the following recommendations to the Minimum Wage Board of the Province of British Columbia:—

"1. That it shall be unlawful for any employer in the Province of British Columbia to employ or pay any female employee of eighteen (18) years of age or over engaged in the public housekeeping occupation less than fourteen dollars ($14) a week:

"Provided that when lodging is furnished by the employer to any employee in the public housekeeping occupation as part payment of the wages of said employee, not more than three dollars ($3) a week may be deducted from the weekly minimum wage of such employee as hereinbefore specified for such service rendered:

"Provided, further, that when board or meals are furnished by the employer to any employee in the public housekeeping occupation as part payment of the wages of such employee, not more than five dollars and twenty-five cents ($5.25) a week may be deducted from the weekly minimum wage of such employee as hereinbefore specified for a full week's board of twenty-one (21) meals. A fraction of a week's board shall be computed upon a proportional basis.

"2. That forty-eight (48) hours shall constitute a week: Provided, however, that in emergency cases fifty-two (52) hours a week be allowed, and time and one-half be paid the employee for all time worked over the forty-eight (48) hours a week."

And this Board having approved all of the said recommendations of the Conference, it is hereby ordered as obligatory on all employers, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, as follows:—

1. The minimum wage for every female person eighteen years of age or over that age (except as to women and apprentices to whom a special licence is issued by the Board under section 10 (1) of the said Act) who is in receipt of or entitled to any compensation for labour or services performed for any employer, within the meaning of the said Act, in any public housekeeping occupation in the Province of British Columbia shall be the sum of fourteen dollars ($14) a week:

Provided that when lodging is furnished by the employer to any employee as part payment of the wages of said employee, not more than three dollars ($3) a week may be deducted from the weekly wage of such employee for a full week's lodging of seven days:

And, further, that when board or meals are furnished by the employer to any employee as part payment of the wages of such employee, not more than five dollars and twenty-five cents ($5.25) a week may be deducted from the weekly wage of such employee for a full week's board of twenty-one (21) meals. A fraction of a week's board shall be computed upon a proportional basis.

2. That no employee shall be employed more than forty-eight (48) hours a week, except in cases of emergency, when fifty-two (52) hours a week may be worked. Such overtime employment shall be paid for at the rate of time and one-half.

(b.) Girls under Eighteen Years of Age.

Take notice that by virtue of the authority vested in the Minimum Wage Board by the "Minimum Wage Act" of the Province of British Columbia, the said Board, having inquired into the wages and conditions of labour of girls under eighteen years of age employed in the public housekeeping, occupation in the Province of British Columbia, and having determined wages and conditions of labour suitable for such girls, hereby orders that:—

1. It shall be unlawful for any employer in the Province of British Columbia to employ or pay any girl under eighteen years of age in the public housekeeping occupation less than twelve dollars ($12) a week:

Provided that when lodging is furnished by the employer to any girl under the age of eighteen years as part payment of the wages of said girl, not more than three dollars ($3) a week may be deducted from the weekly wage of such girl for a full week's lodging of seven days:

And, further, that when board or meals are furnished by the employer to any girl under the age of eighteen years as part payment of the wages of such girl, not more than five dollars and twenty-five cents ($5.25) a week may be deducted from the weekly wage of such girl for a full week's board of twenty-one (21) meals. A fraction of a week's board shall be computed upon a proportional basis.

2. No girl under the age of eighteen years shall be employed more than forty-eight (48) hours a week, except in cases of emergency, when fifty-two (52) hours a week may be worked. Such overtime employment shall be paid for at the rate of time and one-half.

To Employers in the Public Housekeeping Occupation:

To obviate unnecessary correspondence and delay in the issue of such licences, the Board desire that you take notice that such licences will only be issued under the following conditions, namely:—

1. Any female person when first entering the public housekeeping occupation shall, for the purpose and intent of this Order, be deemed an apprentice during the first three (3) months of actual service; and wherever used in this Order the words "apprentice" or "apprenticeship" shall be read with this restricted meaning.

2. The minimum wage to be paid any apprentice shall be twelve dollars ($12) a week:

Provided that when lodging is furnished by the employer to any apprentice as part payment of the wages of said apprentice, not more than three dollars ($3) a week may be deducted from the weekly wage of such apprentice for a full week's lodging of seven days:

And, further, that when board or meals are furnished by the employer to any apprentice as part payment of the wages of such apprentice, not more than five dollars and twenty-five cents ($5.25) a week may be deducted from the weekly wage of such apprentice for a full week's board of twenty-one (21) meals. A fraction of a week's board shall be computed upon a proportional basis.

3. No apprentice shall be employed for more than forty-eight (48) hours in any week, except in cases of emergency, when fifty-two (52) hours a week may be worked. Such overtime employment shall be paid for at the rate of time and one-half.

And where used in this Order the term "employer" shall include every person, firm, or corporation, agent, manager, representative, contractor, sub-contractor, or principal, or other persons having control or direction of any employee in the office occupation, or responsible, directly or indirectly, for the wages of another.

(a.) Women Eighteen Years of Age or over.

Upon receipt of the recommendations from a Conference held on the fourth day of June, 1919, pursuant to the provisions of the "Minimum Wage Act," touching the minimum wage and maximum hours proper in the office occupation, as follows:—

"Be it Resolved, That this Conference on the office occupation in the Province of British Columbia, meeting in the Court-house, New Westminster, B.C., on the fourth day of June, 1919, hereby makes the following recommendations to the Minimum Wage Board of the Province of British Columbia:—

"1. That it shall be unlawful for any employer in the Province of British Columbia to employ or pay any female employee of eighteen (18) years of age or over engaged in the office occupation less than fifteen dollars ($15) a week.

"2. That it shall be unlawful for any employer in the Province of British Columbia to employ any female employee of eighteen (18) years of age or over engaged in the office occupation for more than forty-eight (48) hours a week."

And this Board having approved all of the said recommendations of the Conference, it is hereby ordered as obligatory on all employers, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, as follows:—

1. The minimum wage for every female person eighteen years of age or over that age (except as to women and apprentices to whom a special licence is issued by the Board under section 10 (1) of the said Act) who is in receipt of or entitled to any compensation for labour or services performed for any employer, within the meaning of the said Act, in any office occupation in the Province of British Columbia shall be the sum of fifteen dollars ($15) a week.

2. That no employee shall be employed more than forty-eight (48) hours a week.

(b.) Girls under Eighteen Years of Age.

Take notice that by virtue of the authority vested in the Minimum Wage Board by the "Minimum Wage Act" of the Province of British Columbia, the said Board, having inquired into the wages and conditions of labour of girls under eighteen years of age employed in the office occupation in the Province of British Columbia, and having determined wages and conditions of labour suitable for such girls, hereby orders that:—

1. No employer shall employ any girl in the office occupation in the Province of British Columbia under the age of eighteen years at less than the following wage, namely:—

$11 a week during the first six months of such employment.

$13 a week during the third six months of such employment.

$14 a week during the fourth six months of such employment.

2. No girl under the age of eighteen years shall be employed more than forty-eight (48) hours a week.

(c.) Apprentices over Eighteen Years of Age.

To Employers in the Office Occupation:

By section 10 (1) of the "Minimum Wage Act" of the Province of British Columbia the Board is empowered to issue to any female apprentice a special licence authorizing her employment in the above occupation (being an occupation for which a minimum wage has been fixed) at a minimum wage to be fixed in the licence, less than the minimum wage fixed for the said occupation; the licence to remain in force for such period as is fixed by the Board: Provided that the number of employees holding special licences under said section employed in any plant or establishment shall not exceed in number one-seventh of the whole number of female employees in that plant or establishment.

To obviate unnecessary correspondence and delay in the issue of such licences, the Board desire that you take notice that such licences will only be issued under the following conditions, namely:—

1. Any female person when first entering the office occupation shall, for the purpose and intent of this Order, be deemed an apprentice during the first twelve (12) months of actual service; and wherever used in this Order the words "apprentice" or "apprenticeship" shall be read with this restricted meaning.
